

EDITORIAL PERISCOPE

Still there has been no killing frost Outside calls on hotel phones in Louisville now cost a dime.

Socialists elected H. H. Vogt, a tin ner, mayor of Massillon, Ohio.

And there stood Christian county in the dry column by 1021 majority.

Hopkinsville gave 1104 votes to Morrow and 939 to Black, a Republican majority of 165.

Philadelphia elected J. H. Moore, Republican, mayor of Philadelphia by 197,241 majority.

It is a year today since the armastice was signed and the former kaiser is still unpunished.

Republicans in Louisville are to have a big Rastusation meeting to jubilate over the outcome.

Gov. Black carried Trigg by 26, and Hanbery, Republican, had 32 majority for Representative.

In Paducah Tom Hazelp was given another quietus, being defeated by F. W. Katterjohn for mayor by 86 votes.

Speaking of luck, R. M. Isler was defeated for Mayor at Hickman by 13 votes, by J. O. West.

Will P. Scott was re-elected Mayor of Dawson over C. B. Lisansky, who ran on a labor ticket.

Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. was elected to the New York legislature by a big majority over Elias Raff, Democrat.

President Ebert, the kaiser's successor, was formerly a harness maker. He out to know how to hold the lines.

Ritchie, Democrat, seems to have defeated Nice, Republican, for Governor of Maryland by a small majority but Nice refuses to concede his defeat.

The last of the senate amendments was defeated Thursday and an immediate vote was presented by Republican objections. In the meantime the war has been officially declared to be over.

President Wilson has proclaimed Nov. 27th as Thanksgiving Day. Let us hope that the Republican Senate will give us something to be thankful for, at least by that time.

At Evansville Miss Norma Julia Ebert changed her pretty name to Mrs. Henry Damm. She must have cared for him to take him with a name like that.

Oklahoma will probably never again try the experiment of having a blind Senator like Gore. In these days a Democratic leader must not only have eyes but must keep them open, and be able to see the point.

Gov.-elect Morrow is already committed to the appointment of a non-partisan board of control of seven members, two of them women. Now watch him forget all about it.

In all, 155 women have been elected to the various legislative bodies of Germany, out of a total of 2,330 and only seven small states are without them in their parliaments.

Premier Clemenceau has asked for the resignation of Blockade Minister Albert Le Brun for voting against the ratification of the peace treaty. Even France, it seems, has Reeds and Borns.

The Kentuckian's advertising is still forcing it to issue extra pages, its subscription lists are steadily growing and the job department is crowded with business. For all of which we are preparing to be duly thankful on the 27th.

The Government has ruled that it can not legally call upon Mexico to refund the $150,000 ransom paid to Mexican bandits for W. O. Jenkins release, upon the ground that the Mexican government was not responsible.

The Irish Republican party has decided that Irish girls who keep company with British government forces are to be penalized by having their hair cut off. Any girl who would give her heart away would carry nothing for her curls. One girl has already bowed to the scissors.

GOV. BLACK GIVES HIS OPINION

BLACK CONGRATULATES THE GOVERNOR-ELECT

Hon Edwin P. Morrow, Louisville, Ky.
My dear sir: In the election held yesterday you received a majority of the votes cast for the governorship of Kentucky for the next four years, and I congratulate you. As a result of said election you have the opportunity to give to Kentucky that creditable administration which I had determined to give in the event of my election, and I wish you all success in that accomplishment.
Sincerely yours,
JAMES D. BLACK.

Gov. James D. Black arrived in Louisville yesterday and immediately sent a letter of congratulation to Edwin P. Morrow, Governor-elect.
Governor Black then prepared a statement setting out the causes which, in his belief, were responsible for the defeat of the Democratic ticket.
Five main points are covered by Gov. Black. He says that he lost the centers of population because of his stand as a "dry" man; that the pro-Germans, who were opposed to President Wilson because his policies defeated Germany, also sided against him because of his known espousal of the League of Nations; that he was unjustly injured by the Armstrong matter; that the handbills distributed among the miners by Republicans denouncing President Wilson cost him many votes, and Governor Black discusses what his friends called the handicap of the Stanley administration.

RAWN & SMITH THE ESSAYISTS

At An Excellent Meeting Of the Athenaeum, Fully Attended.

Despite the rain Thursday night, the Athenaeum meeting was an unusually good one. Only six of the members were absent. Two good papers were read. E. V. Rawn took as his subject "Who Pays?" and read a strong and well prepared paper on the various phases of the labor question.

He was followed by Rev. E. S.
Smith on "Ethical Standards," a splendid paper with a strong religious flavor, the writer taking the ground that the Bible furnished the only safe guide in the dealings of men with each other.

Both papers were discussed for an hour or more and the meeting was full of interest.

Dr. Austin Bell's resignation was accepted with regret. Three vacancies now exist, to be filled at the next meeting.

Those present were President Jas.
A. McKenzie, A. H. Eckles, J. W.
Gaines, Geo. E. Gary, L. E. Foster, W. T. Fowler, Iro L. Smith, H. W.
Linton, A. H. Clark, S. P. White, C.
E. Woodruff, W. O. Soyars, Everett
S. Smith, Ed L. Weathers, E. V.
Rawn, Chas. M. Meacham, Frank Rives, J. W. Downer, T. J. McReynolds, T. C. Underwood.

MORE FOOD PROMISED

The sale of government food by the city commissioners met with such success, that Mayor Bassett ordered another car load and it is expected to be on hand by Monday and to be put on sale at once.

This car will include bacon, canned meats, canned corn, tomatoes and beans.

TO CELEBRATE ARMISTICE DAY 37 NEGROES GET SENTENCE

Public Meeting At Tabernacle Thursday With Patriotic Speeches By Soldiers.

All arrangements for the big Armistice Day celebration at the Union Tabernacle on next Thursday afternoon are being completed. The Christian County Chapter of the American Legion and the Red Cross are hard at work to make the affair worthy of the day which it celebrates.

There will be quite a number of four-minute speeches on live subjects, dealing with the war, the issues of reconstruction, and 100 per cent Americanism.

The speakers will be all ex-soldiers. The Blue and the Gray will be represented, the Spanish-American War Veterans will have their speaker, and the Veterans and Nurses of the Great War will compose the remainder.

Lebkuecher's band will play patriotic music, and Mr. Hohgatt will lead the audience in community singing.

REAL ESTATE.

This has been a busy week in real estate circles. There have been two large sales—the T. J. McReynolds sale of the Fowler farm for F. E.
White and the sale of the Faulkner property on Cox Mill pike under the auspices of Edmunds and Stites.

The Faulkner Sale.
On Thursday afternoon, the Faulkner property on Cox Mill Pike was sold at auction under the auspices of Edmunds & Stites. Due to the weather conditions, the sale was not finished, lots 1 to 31 in block were sold and No. 6 in Block E, but the remainder of the sale was called off.

The lots facing the Cox Mill road were sold at an average of $420, more than $500 per acre.

The lots were sold as follows:

Block F.
Lot 1 and 2—Miss Mary Bronaugh
Lot 3 and 5—J. J. Metcalfe.
Lot 6—R. C. White.
Lot 7 and 8—John A. Gunn.
Lot 9—H. H. Peel.
Lot 10, 11, 12—L. H. Smithson.
Lot 13 and 14—T. A. King.
Lot 15 and 16—A. B. Anderson.
Lot 17—M. G. Wadlington.
Lots 18 and 19—T. J. McReynolds.

Lots 20 and 21—J. D. Claggett.
Lot 22 and 23—Ben H. Cook.
Lot 24 and 25—J. B. Hudson.
Lot 26—E. V. Rawn.
Lot 27 and 28—Mrs. Max J.
Blythe.

Lot 29—J. E. Cliborne.
Lot 30 and 31—J. J. Metcalfe.
Lot 60, 61, and 62—J. J. Metcalfe.
Lot 6, Block E, J. J. Metcalfe.

The remainder of the property, consisting of over 500 acres will be sold privately in size tracts to suit the purchasers. The same terms will be offered by Edmunds and Stites for the immediate future.

Other Sales

Radford & Clardy sold a residence on Central avenue belonging to Dr.
Grace to Sam Boone.

J. M. Higgins & Son sold the Dr.
Dennis place on East Sixth street to A. E. Mullins.

The same firm sold the W. A.
P'Pool house on 13th street to Mr.
Harrington.

INJUNCTION CASE COMES UP TO-DAY

RUMORS THAT IT MAY GO OVER AT INDIANAPOLIS FOR ONE WEEK

GOMPERS AND AMES CLASH

Promise Made That If Injunction Is Withdrawn Miners Will Go To Work.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Still hoping that court developments at Indianapolis Saturday night point the way to an early ending of the coal strike, Government agents nevertheless put forward renewed and more determined efforts yesterday to protect the public against distress almost certain to result from a protracted suspension of mining operations.

Realizing that the country is burning about three times as much coal as the mines are turning out, the railroad administration, through its recently created central coal committee took drastic action in ordering that the supplying of coal to foreign-owned ships in American ports be stopped immediately.

With calls for assistance from communities suffering from a coal shortage growing more numerous, the railroad administration turned loose every available car to meet the appeals made for fuel.

Before leaving Washington for Indianapolis Assistant Attorney General Ames, in charge of the Government's case, declared there was no change in its policy toward the strike and that he would endeavor to obtain a renewal of its temporary injunction.

There were rumors, apparently emanating from high sources, that the injunction hearing set for Saturday might go over one week without prejudice to either side. Equally persistently were reports that Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, would make a personal appeal to Attorney-General Palmer tomorrow for withdrawal of the restraining order and all court proceedings on assurances that if this were done the strike could be settled and the men put to work in the mines in forty-eight hours. Mr. Palmer was out of the city, but the statement by Judge Ames that the Government would not compromise the strike, which it held illegal, was accepted as the last word on the subject.

INCREASE IN MAJORITY

No Radical Change, However, and Morrow's Lead Will Be 27,000.

Additional returns from the race for Governor only served to increase the majority of Edwin P. Morrow, Republican, over James D. Black, Democrat, and it is probable that the official count will show a majority for the Republicans of over 27,- 000.

Pendleton county, in the Sixth district, has been heard from and gives Gov. Black a majority of less than 100, thus effectively putting the quietus on any hope that might have remained of the Democrats carrying the Sixth District.

Morrow carried the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh Districts, while Gov. Black received majorities in the First, Second, Seventh and Eighth.

MOVE TO THIS CITY.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis and little daughter, Anne Evelyn, left this week for Hopkinsville to make their future home. Mr. Davis has been promoted to the position of supervisor for the insurance company he has been with for some time and has eight counties in his district. He will also engage in the real estate business. The best wishes of many friends go with Mr. Davis and his splendid family into their new home.

PROFITEER IS HELD TO BLAME

PALMER LINKS UP THE HOARD- ER AS PARTNER IN THE HIGH PRICES

SAVING IS GREATLY NEEDED

Licensing of Corporations and Publication of Production Costs Other Remedies.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—Attorney General Palmer, in a statement issued in advance of the fair price conference called by Governor Sproul, declared that profiteering and hoarding are responsible for a considerable part of the prevailing high prices. He said that it has been the policy of this department whenever possible to force hoarded goods into the nominal channels of trade.

Describing efforts of the department of justice to drive down the cost of living, Attorney General Palmer speaking before a meeting of the fair price committee, mayors of cities and state officials of Pennsylvania here, declared that if the people would increase their saving by 10 per cent, the cost of living would fall 20 per cent in a brief period of time.

Mr. Palmer attacked the "buy-now" campaign, declaring that "our job is to wait, both in our interest and in the interest of the nation and the world at large, that the demand may be lightened." He called upon the "plain people" to wear their old clothes a little longer, to refuse to buy until production had caught up with the demand. Unless the people themselves take this step the attorney general said, the nation cannot expect to have anything but discomfort and disorder.

Mr. Palmer urged that the country vigorously support "some of the new proposed legislation" which would place the strong arm of the government over powerful corporations. He spoke of the proposed licensing of institutions doing an interstate business and the pending bills providing for marking costs on package goods. If the production costs were known, he said, the American trait of being stubborn will end a lot of gouging for a few of us will be driven into anything.

Labor was called to account for any lethargy in production by Mr.
Palmer. He branded idlers as sinners, and declared idlers could result in only one thing at this time, discontent.

"This is a critical hour in the life of our country," he continued. The test is being made whether the government has the right and the power to protect all the people from a national disaster which would be inflicted upon them by a single group for its own advantage."

Mr. Palmer said that the coal strike involves more than a dispute over wages, hours or conditions of capital; that the offer of a peaceful settlement has been rejected and that the government face the alternative of submitting to demands of a group or "challenging the assertion by that group, of power greater than that of the government itself."

OFF FOR GEORGETOWN.

Hopkinsville will be largely represented at the General Baptist Association in Georgetown next Tuesday and Wednesday. Among those who will go, most of them leaving Monday morning, are Rev. L. W. Doonan, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Gaines, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. B. Trice, Mr. and Mrs.
Bailey Waller, Chas. M. Meacham, M. H. Tandy, G. H. Stowe, Geo. E.
Gary, Rev. E. O. Cottrell, Rev. H.
E. Gabby, Rev. L. L. Spudis and perhaps others.

RED CROSS MEMBERSHIP.

The annual Red Cross Membership Campaign has been in progress in Hopkinsville this week and the ladies passing the papers around have met with the usual general encouragement. The work of the Red Cross is nowhere appreciated more than in Hopkinsville.
